Scenes of Army Plane Crash in Which Sikeston Man Was Killed

Scattered over a length of 200 feet is the wreckage of a Scott Field plane which crashed in a field near St. Jacob, Ill., this morning, carrying an Army officer and an enlisted man to their deaths. In the foreground is the mud-covered motor. A Scott Field ambulance stands by as Army officers survey the wreckage.

Here is the tail after it was sheared from the plane. The tail, with a flare parachute lying over the top, was thrown about 50 feet from the rest of the wreckage. The crash occurred on a farm near St. Jacob.

Here is the twisted wreckage of the landing gear. In the rear of the gear are the bodies of Second Lieutenant Ralph Guy La Baw and Private Alney L. Tanner, covered with a white sheet.

Sikeston Man Killed in U. S. Army Plane Crash

An 8-year-old two-seater bi-plane of the U. S. Army at Scott Field, Ill., plunged to the ground at a farm in Madison County, Ill., at 8:55 a. m. Wednesday, carrying to death Private Alney L. Tanner, 22 years old, from Sikeston, and the pilot of craft, Second Lieut. Ralph Guy La Baw, 22, of Lincoln, Ill.

Tanner, whose home address was given as 319 Matthews, and La Baw were killed instantly.

The crash occurred 12 miles north of the field.

The remains of the Sikeston man were brought from Belleville, Ill., late Wednesday by the Albritton Undertaking Co. for services here.

Wreckage was strewn over a distance of 200 feet in the tomato field of the William Loehring farm, four miles southwest of St. Jacob, Ill.

Cause of the crash could not be determined. An army investigation board was scheduled to begin a secret hearing Wednesday afternoon to determine the cause. Its report and findings will be mailed to the War Department at Washington, D. C.

The plane fell about two blocks from the Loehring home. The farmer and his son, Eldon, were the first on the scene and they were able to give an eye-witness account of the crash.

The father and son reported the plane had been flying over the farm for a short time before the crash at an altitude of between 1500 and 2500 feet.

"The ship made a circle," the elder Loehring said, "and had started a second one when it began falling. The plane struck at a 45-degree angle with the motors operating at full speed. After crashing the ship turned over and came to a halt on its top."

Although the ship crashed with its motors running, it did not burn. The tail was torn from the fuselage by the impact and the wings were crumpled. The pistons were ripped out of the motor and the propeller was torn from the engine, indicating the force with which the crash occurred. A flare parachute was thrown over the tail.

The crash occurred in a tomato field at the edge of a clover field and on fairly level ground. Army men visiting the scene said La Baw could have made a landing

Manor Murder Trial Heads Criminal Docket of August

When Circuit Court at Benton convenes Aug. 8 John B. Manor will go on trial for his life for first degree murder and also for robbery with a deadly weapon.

The former Cape Girardeau convict, who was captured Saturday in Denver, Colo., in addition faces a federal indictment charging he left the state to avoid prosecution in the killing May 8, 1935, of Tom Carlton, Cotton Belt pumphouse keeper at Gray's Point. Manor broke jail at Benton nine months later while awaiting trial.

On the criminal docket for the August term J. Sherwood Smith must answer another indictment for embezzlement. This charge alleges the former Benton county clerk misappropriated for his own use Sept. 2, 1935, a state bus and truck refund check of $156.03 due the city of Sikeston. Of three other indictments over similar checks, one was quashed and Smith pleaded guilty to the other two, receiving two years each for the offenses and then obtaining a parole. His parole was subsequently revoked, and he is now awaiting outcome of an appeal from the revocation.

Fifty-six of 60 indictments charging C. E. Felker with speculation in county warrants are on schedule for the August term. In the previous term, one case resulted in a hung jury and three other counts against the county collector were granted a change of venue to Cape Girardeau and Mississippi counties.

Fred English, of Paducah, Ky., will be tried for assault with intent to rob. He and Wm. Faulkner of the same city allegedly attempted a holdup at the Bartels Store in Cape Girardeau last winter and their trials came to Scott County on a change of venue. Other cases booked are: Vester E. Dickson, who lived west of this city, charged with rape of a young girl.

Over at Charleston a negro woman lost a two-weeks old baby which was duly buried. The mother remained very ill and the midwife who attended the mother told them if they did not take the body of the babe from the grave and fill the grave up two feet than rebury the body the mother would die.

Bennett Clark stands head and shoulders above his two competitors for United States Senator in Missouri. He is one of the strong men in the Senate who votes as he believes is best for the country. His two competitors seem to be of the rubber stamp variety who would jump every time the Man Higher Up would say frog.

A window peeper was abroad in the land in Sikeston Tuesday night. This time he was in Ward 1 on Moore Avenue. This is one of the most contemptible traits that any human being can be guilty of and we would like for the moran to be caught in order that he can be branded in the eyes of the public.

The following item taken from the Mexico, Mo., Ledger fits conditions in Sikeston very well is why we are printing same: "Last week several merchants told me that business in Mexico was 'awful.' Today I found one obvious reason for this condition. I bought some groceries and had to double park while I went in for them as every available parking space was filled with 'town' cars. Then here came a cop who gave me a slip warning me to go on out and hunt a parking place, which would be four or five blocks away. (A nice distance to carry a cwt. of sugar, egg mash, or such!) Now, I think this is giving the farmer a dirty deal, for his time is just as valuable to him as the town fellow's is to him. He cannot afford to hire a chauffeur or bring an extra driver to sit in his car while he goes in for his groceries. Your Honorable Mayor said he was trying to set up a St. Louis style of parking, but it should be remembered that Mexico is very dependent on the farmer's dollars and produce to help keep her business going. No wonder so many people are going to neighboring towns where they get accommodations, and no wonder even that mail order houses are so patronized as their merchandise is brought right to the door. And this will continue unless something is done. It seems to us farmers that since the Government whose dollars come from our pockets, too, have helped you build such a nice square, that we should have the privilege of parking near a store long enough to load our purchases. We demand a square deal!—Marion Boulware."

A hitch-hiker picked up an extra by Thomas Wm. Morrison, 14, of Helena, Ark., and formerly of Caruthersville, proved the undoing of the youth late Monday.

Morrison was arrested in Cape Girardeau and faced a charge of stealing a Ford automobile at Marianna, Ark. The hitch-hiker observed that the lad was a poor driver and finally offered to drive the car. At Cape Girardeau, while the boy went to a movie, the companion sought police and voiced suspicions that the car was stolen. Cape police nabbed the lad and they said he admitted the theft.

Tom Baker and Tom Legan returned Sunday night from Michigan and Canada where they spent a vacation of ten days.

BRINGING THEM TOGETHER!

Washington Comment

Mr. Roosevelt left Washington on the night of July 7, on a journey praised by his political friends as a patriotic pilgrimage, and condemned by his political enemies as an unjustifiable, party-feud stumping tour. Marietta, Ohio, Covington, Ky., Louisville, Oklahoma City, Fort Worth and Pueblo were honored by calls. Thence the trail wound westward to San Diego, to be followed by a voyage through the Panama Canal to Florida, and home by solid ground, with pauses in South Carolina and Georgia. Greeting the electorate will be interrupted here and there by sight-seeing and fishing. Speaking of angling, the President's fishing can be called such courtesy only. He has small chance of having the fun that goes with a quiet day at the old fishing hole.

One of the last things done by the President, prior to his departure for the West, was to go over the plans of the Securities and Exchange Commission for an investigation of monopolies. The examination will be confined to the economic features of the problem, the Department of Justice being left free to deal with such matters as can be reached by anti-trust laws. Moving southward, Mr. Roosevelt was received with the courtesy and notice that it rightfully accorded to a Chief Executive, and his remarks were characterized by a hopeful optimism. The building up of a purchasing power for agriculture, common sense methods in business and a spreading of the benefits and privileges of civilization were urged, as ends devoutly to be wished.

Upon his return to Washington, the President will turn his eye upon the primary elections as a reasonably definite index to public opinion. During what remains of July, primaries will be held in three states, August will have fourteen, and September fifteen. The usual grind, from which even a President is not exempt, will be resumed shortly after the well-filled Executive train rolls into the Capital City. In addition to matters that call for statecraft, there are some that will require careful review on account of their delicacy, arising out of political or other considerations.

Not the least of such details is the appointment of a Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Mr. Cardozo. The choice could be made more easily if it were not for the fact that the name of Senator Wagner of New York has been brought forward, with a good deal of pressure, for the place. Should he be seated on the bench or saved for further senatorial duty? His fitness for service as a presidential candidate will not enter into the question at issue because, having been born abroad, the doors of the White House are closed against him, saying as a caller. Mr. Wagner does not head and end the list. Others have a Barkis-like willingness to become Supreme Court Justices. Three law school professors, one governor, one judge and two senators are ready to see that the work of the Supreme Court is done properly.

While the United States is torn by nothing more bloody than fistie encounters over the New Deal, more sanguine warfare prevails elsewhere in the world. Readers are getting a little tired of the doings in Spain, which continue their even course, with a half-column or so to the effect that someone or some place has been bombed. Japan continues to walk on the face of China, with a boycott of Japanese goods reported to be growing in the United States. The serenity of the Holy Land is broken, as the Jewish and

Flower Basket Hands Hiway Second Loss; ISCO Winner

With Cline Ables pitching, the Flower Basket had enough of what it takes to drop the Highway team, 6-5, at the softball diamond Monday night for the second reversal of the Road Makers this season. Ables is not the customary mound man for the Basket. He tossed a ball not too hard to hit but which did not travel far when socked—two doubles were the extra-base hits off him as both teams gained seven safeties.

The game was won in the fifth. Highway led, 5-3. A spurt by the Flower Basket, assisted by timely two-baggers by Nelson and Ables and a shorter rap by Clark, netted the Flower Shop three runs. Highway then failed to crack the one-run lead. Eight errors by the Road Builders played a prominent part in the downfall. Lacy batted 1.000.

A tight brand of ball was played most of the time in the International Shoe Co. and Hollingsworth, won by ISCO 4-2.

The Druggists were held to four hits, three of which came in the fifth inning when the losers scored their only runs of the game. Putting a man across home plate but once in each of four innings, the Shoe Factory went ahead inch by inch after having the score tied. Ray Bandy, with two hits in four tries, was the only batter to gain more than one safety.

for half a mile, to the edge of the park.

The Big Oak's age is estimated at 380 years, but August P. Beilmann, arboriculturist at Shaw's Garden, St. Louis, has declared that it was still growing, gaining a quarter of an inch in girth annually, and with proper care and treatment would live for another century.

While it may require some surgery, it is in good health and well foliaged. It stands 128 feet, 10 inches high; the first branch is 52 feet above ground, and the diameter is 6 feet 5 inches, at a point 4 1/2 feet above ground, where the circumference is 21 feet 1 inch. A foot above ground the diameter is about 10 feet. The crown has a spread of 135 feet. The tree is of the bur or mossy cup variety.

Seventy-five yards away is another fine old oak, almost as large and even more symmetrical. It is a region of large forest growth, with a thick, shady canopy overhead, little undergrowth and no tall weeds. Other trees in the vicinity include the cypress, oaks of other groups, sycamore, cottonwood, hickory, pecan, ash, hackberry, gum, elm, persimmon and willow. Many of them are two feet in diameter.

The central 80-acre tract of the park, containing the Big Oak, is virgin timber and will be preserved as such. This was the section which cost $8000, of which the Park Board and Conservation Commission each put up $3000 and Jacob L. Babler of St. Louis $2000.

Lying to the west, southwest and northwest of this unit are tracts totaling 240 acres, shown on the sponsors' plat as virgin forest, whose former owners retained the right to remove merchantable timber during the next five years. There is a strip of road right-of-way, north of the Big Oak, 75 feet wide, shown in virgin timber, which must be felled when the road is built.

The remaining 680 acres of the park consists of cutover land, from which loggers have removed the merchantable timber. However, this is largely covered now with smaller trees spared by the lumbermen, and some new growth. Some of the trees there now are more than 20 feet high and almost a foot in diameter. With protection, in time this portion of the park also will be a thick woods.

Apart from the 80-acre central unit, the park consists of 453 acres, which were donated and 480 acres which were bought for $2550 out of a fund raised by the Southeast Missouri sponsors, centering in Mississippi County. The park consists of a solid tract with irregular boundaries.

Southwest of the Big Oak is Grassy Lake, a duck and goose pond.

New Madrid CCC Camp Happenings

ZIMMERMANN SPEAKER FOR CCC ANNIVERSARY

Congressman Orville Zimmermann of Kennett was the principle speaker at the celebration of the Third Anniversary of the start of the New Madrid CCC Camp, held at the camp last Sunday afternoon. Other features of the celebration were a concert by the Junior Band of Chaffee, a baseball game won by the camp team from the New Madrid town team, 14-4, and a 2.59-inch drought-breaking rain. The rain was not included on the original program but was a welcome addition, particularly as the timing was perfect, the down-pour starting about 15 minutes after the end of the ball game, the last scheduled event of the afternoon.

Mr. Zimmermann's speech was a eulogy of the CCC and the work the camps are doing in building up the boys mentally and physically and in reducing the "crime bill" of the nation. He also spoke of the valuable work the camps in Southeast Missouri are doing toward rehabilitation of the drainage systems and the difficulty he had in convincing the President and his advisors that it was vital to the welfare of this area that the camps be continued for several years beyond last May 30, when they had been slated for closing down.

Another speaker was H. G. "Chili" Simpson of Charleston, a member of the State Highway Commission. He spoke feelingly of the valuable work for Mississippi County accomplished by the CCC camps in May, 1937, when the Mississippi River threatened to inundate the spillway through a break in the levee left from the flood of January-February 1937. CCC Co. 3729 of New Madrid was prominent in the construction of the Wolf Island ring levee, said to be the longest and the highest levee of this type ever constructed on the Mississippi.

Among the other guests of the camp were Lt. Oscar Honey, National Guard band leader of Chaffee and leader of the Junior Band; A. O. Allen, postmaster of New Madrid; Oscar Filled of Portageville; Lieutenant and Mrs. Harry C. Graves and son of the Perryville CCC camp; and Capt. and Mrs. Hal F. Irwin, Commanding Officer, and Capt. Henry K. Thomas, Medical Officer, of the Delta CCC Camp. There were many other friends and relatives of the members of the New Madrid Camp. Many of the relatives of the boys were served dinner with the boys at 1:30 in the morning. The Camp Supervisory Personnel and the principle guests were served at 12:30 in the afternoon. Guides were furnished to conduct all who wished in a tour of the camp buildings and facilities, such as the messhall, Educational Building, Engineering Office, Truck Repair Shop, Hospital, etc.

The Mississippi River is about two miles south of the park. James Bayou lies to the east. This is flat, low country, included in the Bird's Point-New Madrid floodway of the Mississippi flood control system.

As a result of the public interest in the Big Oak and the surrounding forest created by the Post-Dispatch articles last autumn, Gov. Stark appointed an unofficial Big Oak Commission, which took charge of the movement to establish the park. This comprised State Senator James C. McDowell of Charleston, chairman; H. G. Simpson of Charleston, secretary-treasurer; I. R. Kelso, Cape Girardeau; Fred Naeter, Cape Girardeau; R. B. Gillooly, Charleston; H. S. Roberts, East Prairie, and C. L. Blanton Sr., Sikeston. Simpson is a member of the State Highway Commission. Civic clubs of the district participated actively in the park movement.

Payment for the central 80 acres was made last Thursday and the last of the deeds recorded, completing the undertaking in eight and one-half months.

CCC ANGELS DEFEAT NEW MADRID TEAM

The baseball team of the New Madrid CCC Camp had no trouble in disposing of the New Madrid town team, 14 to 4, in a game played Sunday afternoon at the camp in connection with the celebration of the Camp's Third Anniversary. The CCC "Angels" made 15 hits, 14 runs, and 3 errors, while the town team was making 4 hits, 4 runs, and 4 errors. Ralph Taylor of Parma pitched for the Angels, struck out seven and walked two; Charles Pikey of Marston and erstwhile pitcher of the Illinois Big Bucks tossed them for New Madrid, giving no free tickets to first and striking out six Angels. Carl Cokenour of the Big Bucks also played for the town team, at shortstop.

Taylor pitched no-hit ball until both he and his support weakened in the eighth, and two hits and a walk combined with two errors gave the town team their four runs. He allowed two more hits in the ninth, but the Angel infield had their eyes back on the ball and there was no further scoring. Only three balls were hit off him to the outfield, all of them outs.

The CCC boys say that the New Madrid team is the best team they have played this year in regard to good sportsmanship. No kicks were registered against the umpiring, performed by Forrest Council of Charleston, and his son Lloyd, Edward Council, another son, played for the Angels.

The score by innings:
New Madrid 000 000 040—4
New Madrid CCC 303 410 12x—14
Next Sunday, July 24, the Angels played a return engagement with the much touted Vinson team on the latter's home grounds. The CCC boys won their home game from Vinson, 11-6, and the Stoddard County aggregation is out for revenge.

Superintendent Fred R. Jacoby is having difficulty in getting his project assistants enrolled at the New Madrid CCC camp. He is permitted to select five of this classification, which formerly was known as local experienced men until abolished on September 30, 1937. Tony Butler of Benton and Joe A. Walters of Fremont are the only two whose applications have passed successfully the line-up of officials who now have a finger in their approval. Mr. Jacoby has plenty of applicants on file for the five places, but as the dead-line for enrolling them was July 20, it appears that there will be a few vacancies left over to be filled on October 1st. It takes over a week for an application to make the rounds.

The clearing crew of the New Madrid CCC Camp has started clearing on Ditch 2 of Drainage District No. 19 in New Madrid County. They started last Monday morning at the Libbourn-

Catron road and will work north from there at first.

Foreman Kermit A. Wallenmeyer of the New Madrid CCC Camp has been loaned to the Delta camp for the period from July 18 to August 15. His specialty is the operation and care of heavy equipment such as tractors and draglines, and the Delta Camp equipment is in such condition that a general overhauling of the operation and care of it is deemed necessary by the District Engineer of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Engineering.

Fifteen young men of Scott County were enrolled at the New Madrid CCC Camp last Thursday, July 14th. Early the next morning 10 of them were sent to the Berryman Camp and 5 were sent to one of the camps at Centaur.

Pasteurization of Milk Products

Pasteurization is the process of heating milk to the temperature of 143 degrees and holding the milk at this temperature for 30 minutes. The milk is then run over a surface cooler into an automatic bottler where it is sealed in sterilized bottles at a temperature of about 40 degrees.

The purpose of pasteurization is to kill all bacteria that may cause diseases or have other harmful effects. Souring bacteria are only partly destroyed. Off-flavors in milk are reduced in intensity. During the pasteurization process no cream or any other ingredient of the milk is removed. Pasteurization is only a heating process.

Pasteurization will not make clean milk from dirty, raw milk. We have tried to solve the problem of getting only clean milk from our producers by having a U. S. veterinary inspect the farms of these producers regularly. This inspector requires that certain laws of sanitation be obeyed, as well as having milking rooms meet certain requirements of construction (floor, lighting, etc.). Cows must be tested regularly for tuberculosis and Bang's disease, and all disease or infected cows are destroyed. We sample the milk of each producer regularly to check on butterfat content flavor and sediment. In our plant all equipment is washed at least once a day, floors are scrubbed and sterilized. So far this year we have purchased two pieces of equipment—a bottle washer and a can washer, each of which produces better work than hand washing. Employees wear white uniforms and rubber aprons, all of which must be kept clean. Reiss Dairy is trying to produce milk products that retain all of the natural flavor, yet they are always safe to use.

During the month of June, Reiss Dairy sold over 117,000 packages of milk products. Included in this list of products are: Pasteurized Milk, Chocolate Milk, Cottage Cheese, Butter, Butter-milk, Orangeade and Grapefruitade. Our largest consumer is the U. S. Govt., as our milk is used in the CCC camps at Hayti, New Madrid and Poplar Bluff. With this volume of business, it is necessary that we continually check and inspect so that the quality of our products may continue to improve.

Three Groups Propose Gifts To Furnish Library Interior

As work on the new Public Library nears completion, the Library Board announces offers of three different Sikeston groups to donate valuable and appropriate gifts that will help furnish the building.

Mrs. Harry L. Hart, secretary of the board, received a letter from Leonard Cohen stating the Jewish people of this city would contribute a wall clock to the institution.

The Music Club has signified its intention of purchasing a piano for the auditorium in the basement.

The Junior Woman's Club plans to furnish the children's reading room on the main floor.

All the proposed donations are outstanding because they are essential for the interior of the Library, and all offers were purely voluntary by the groups who made them.

Mr. Cohen's letter is as follows: "As per our conversation in regard to a donation to the Sikeston Library of some useful article, we as Sikestonians, and representing the Jewish group in our city, would be very happy and honored to place some useful fixture in this splendid building which means so much to our growing and progressive little city.

"In suggesting one of the most essential articles, a wall clock, and with the approval of the board and its members, we will gladly make arrangements to find a suitable timepiece that will fit in with the fixture requirements of the building.

"I personally assure you, as well as in the behalf of the other Jewish families in Sikeston, it is indeed a pleasure to make this small and humble contribution toward the development of a splendid institution in our city."

Bookshelves have arrived at the Library, but floor tile must be laid, interior painting and other finishing work must be done before the Library Board will be ready to install furnishings. As soon as bids on furnishings are in the board will select the necessary pieces. The board hopes to receive all bids in time for its next meeting, the first Monday in August.

The Woman's Club of the city gave the lot on which the Library stands.

Hollingsworth Resigns as Red Cross Head; Malone to Post

W. E. "Cousin Ed" Hollingsworth of Sikeston tendered his resignation Monday night as Scott County Red Cross chairman, and C. L. Malone of this city was unanimously elected acting chairman to succeed him at a district board meeting in the Benton Courthouse.

Eleven board members from Sikeston, Illinois, Fomfelt and Chaffee were present, as well as Miss Gertrude Thompson of St. Louis, general field representative for the National Red Cross for the southern half of Missouri.

Mr. Hollingsworth stated that due to pressing business demands he was unable to give sufficient attention to the duties as chairman. He was named to the post last December.

Mr. Malone, who has been 22nd roll call chairman, said he would probably name a successor to this position. Mrs. John Martin will continue as county roll call chairman-at-large.

Famous Names in Rodeo To Ride in Showing Here

Mill Hinkle will have some of the best cow waddies of the Western ranches at his big three-day rodeo—Friday, Saturday and Sunday—which will show at the old fair grounds in Sunset Addition.

The noted ro-day-oh promoter will have vying for prizes such experts as:

Harry Williams of Vinita, Okla., champion calf roper who is bringing his $2500 horse, "Silver", given to him by the late Will Rogers—America's famous humorist—15 years ago. The horse is now 18 years old.

Henry Snively of Pawhuska, Okla., with his famous roping horse.

Lee Farris, of Calgary, Alberta Canada, crack broncho rider.

"Tin Horn" Hank Keenan, rodeo's famous clown from Cheyenne, who will cut capers with his trick mule.

These men rank at the top of the riding-roping-bulldogging profession and will go into action during the rodeo's three-day stand here. They are not paid in wages, but compete with each other for prizes offered by the promoter.

Stock is already arriving in Sikeston for the event. R. D. Clayton, stock dealer here, has en route from Ogden, Utah, a carload of hardboiled horses which will be tamed by the cowboys. Any farmers around here who have barnyard critters that need to be taught manners may bring them to the rodeo and let the 'punchers' show them who's boss. Farmers bringing such horses or mules will get a free ticket to the rodeo.

Mr. Clayton is also furnishing the lumber, posts and nails necessary for pens and fences.

Lights for the night showings have been installed.

The American Legion, Lions and Fire Department are sponsoring the four appearances of the cowboys and cowgirls. Performances each lasting two and a half hours, will begin as follows: Friday, at 8:30 p. m.; Saturday, at 3 p. m. at 8 p. m.; Sunday, at 3 p. m.

Ned Taylor Handles Adams, Burns and Tex Riley in Tie

Ned Taylor demonstrated in the wrestling ring here Wednesday night that it will take a bigger giant than the "One-Man Gang"—Sailor Jack Adams—to crawl his plow. Taylor took the second and third falls at the Legion Arena to win the match.

In a very clean match, Cyclone Burns, known as the "Millionaire Wrestler", grappled with Tex Riley for the deciding fall until the time limit caught up with them and they split with a fall apiece.

Adams and Taylor got down to some tough business in the opening round, Taylor using some head scissors and Japanese arm locks well against the Vermont sailor. Adams took the first fall in 18 minutes with the back breaker.

The next two engagements saw Taylor take on the offensive most of the time. The Texan had Adams going for the ropes most of the time. The second fall was hardly more than a guerilla skirmish. Taylor won it in two minutes with a rocking chair split. The third round was featured by Adams' maneuver which landed Adams' and Referee Thornton's head inside the ropes. Taylor used the same hold at before, the rolling rocking chair split, to annex the deciding fall in eight minutes.

Burns and Riley used practically every clean hold in the deck during the extended first round, which went 42 minutes before the Texan unleashed some kangaroo kicks and laid Burns low. The Florida millionaire used the body scissors and head twist repeatedly in the next affair, and demonstrated that he could come out of arm locks in record time. Riley, an aero swing and failed, and Burns manipulated a double jack-knife in 21 minutes to tie the standing.

There were 17 minutes to go before the 90-minute time limit expired. Like in a football game, its touchdowns and not first downs out in the field that count, so when no one had a fall in the allotted time, the match was called a stalemate.

Phone Bldg. Ready For Inside Work

"Heavy" construction work on the new Telephone Exchange Building by the City Hall has been completed and the Penzel Construction Co. of Jackson, contractors, is ready to begin interior operations.

Workmen the past week completed the cement and brick work. The elevator tower outside was razed. Sand and rock was removed from the street and the plans house set back so that pedestrians again pass the site on the sidewalk.

Tile flooring and plastering must be done on the upper and lower floors, and woodwork is yet to come.

The building should be completed and turned over to the telephone company by Sept 1, according to O. T. Elder of the local exchange. It will then take around two months to wire the exchange board. Conduits leading out of the business district in all directions have been laid, and crew men are now "pulling" cables through these conduits. Larger cables in certain localities which have become congested will be installed before service goes out from the new phone building. Mr. Elder said.

Rural Line Work May Start Soon

Over 95 per cent of the easements for the rural power line out of Sikeston have been secured and construction is expected to begin in the first week of August, according to H. M. Zarcor, superintendent of the Scott-New Madrid-Mississippi County Cooperative Assn.

J. F. Steinmeyer, district construction engineer for the Rural Electrification Administration at Washington, has been here attending to details preliminary to construction.

While Mr. Zarcor hopes for some kind of a formal ceremony attendant to installing the first pole, he said it may be necessary to begin work on very short notice before a program could be arranged.

There are at present 76 miles of the proposed 171-mile line staked for poles, 74 miles of which is consecutive mileage. The government requires 75 consecutive miles before it will allow construction to begin.

Plane Crash—

had detected his trouble before the crash.

Rescuers found the two men strapped in their seats and their bodies badly mangled. Most of their clothing had been torn from their bodies.

After the bodies had been removed from the wreckage, they were taken in a Scott Field ambulance to the post hospital where positive identification was made.

Lieut. La Baw had about 200 hours of flying time to his credit. He was graduated last June from the Army's Advanced Flying School at Kelly Field, San Antonio, and reported for duty at Scott Field July 1. Private Tanner was accompanying him on the trip in the capacity of passenger and observer.

Weather conditions were described as perfect for flying by Scott Field officials. Six other planes went up at the same time Wednesday morning. All returned later. The ship that crashed was a Thomas Morse type, formerly used in weather observation.

One of the three men on the investigating board of the crash is Capt. F. O. Dice, whose plane last winter overturned south of Sikeston during a forced landing.

Alney "Jack" Tanner was born at McMullin on Oct. 6, 1915, and lived there until five years old. He moved from McMullin to Stoddard County, living near Acorn Ridge, Dexter and Gray Ridge until 1931.

Returning to Scott County, he attended Blodgett High School and was graduated there in 1936. Afterward he worked for the Carson-Richter Trucking Co. and for more than a year was a member of Co. K, the local National Guard unit. His father, Al Tanner, died before he was born, and his mother died in December, 1935.

He joined the Army at the St. Louis recruiting station on March 13, 1937, and was sent immediately to Scott Field. He planned to obtain training as a mechanic in the Army and to become a radio operator, relatives said.

His only immediate survivors are a sister, Miss Ruby Tanner, and his grandmother, Mrs. J. L. Love, living at the Matthews Avenue address.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Nazarene Church, conducted by Rev. C. F. Transue and Rev. Acery of the Boardman Church, of which he was a member, and burial with Albritton service will be in Carpenter Cemetery.

HOME AFTER OPERATION

Mrs. Forrest Young, who underwent an operation at St. Francis Hospital in Cape Girardeau, was brought home Tuesday in the Albritton ambulance.

Co. K Freezes Out Y, 3-2; Truckers Top Odd Fellows

Co. K, at last got the number of old "jinx" team, Jack's Y, and won a 3-2 thriller at the diamond Tuesday night as Johnny Marshall pitched two-hit ball. It is the first time this season the Guard has defeated the Y, who handed the Soldiers two of their three losses.

Potashnick took a hit-and-miss fray from the Odd Fellows, 13-8. The games were play-offs of postponed contests of May 26.

The National Guard with nine hits had a hard time making them pay off for the Y bottled up base runners effectively. Similarly, Marshall and his mates bore down in the pinches except for wild streak in the sixth, when the hurler walked in two men for the only Y scores. The Guard pitcher gave six free tickets to first base altogether.

Gaining three hits in four trips to the plate, Miller was by himself in the slugging bracket.

A welter of Odd Fellow errors led to the team's downfall. The boys registered a total of 11 mistakes, which helped the Truckers' cause no little, since the Lodge gathered nine hits to six for Potashnick.

State Church of God Meet Opens With 400 Attending

The seventeenth annual state Church of God convention, convened here at the local Church Thursday morning with 400 delegates attending following an introductory service Wednesday evening.

The Wednesday evening service was held in front of the tabernacle with talks by Bishop E. R. Pulliam of the Sikeston church and vocal and instrumental music. Inside the tabernacle Rev. Pulliam opened with a song service, which ended with a handkerchief wave.

A special song was rendered by Allick Kirkman of Summersville, a praise service was led by Mrs. Pulliam and Rev. L. F. Young of Chaffee spoke on "Peace," giving scriptural citations of the falsity of such an attitude through self-righteousness, a seared conscience, and ignorance, instead of sin judged and forgiven.

For the opening service Thursday, Rev. Pulliam led song service. It was followed by a concert prayer and the opening of the convention by Bishop D. R. Holcomb of this city, state superintendent of the Church of God. Committee members were appointed and Rev. Pulliam gave the welcome address. Rev. Jessie Griffen and wife of Mindenmines, Mo., gave a special song, "I Won't Be Here Long."

The final activity before adjournment at Thursday noon was given by Evangelist Sister Pearl Counce: "Why Should We Have All Bands in Working Order, Including Sunday School?" Bishop A. D. Evans, national business manager for the Church of God, is expected here this week from Cleveland, Tenn.

CLARK SEEN ON WAY TO BOOM FOR PRESIDENCY

Washington, July 17.—Senator Bennett Champ Clark of St. Louis, who has entered the Democratic primary race to succeed himself as United States Senator from Missouri next month apparently without benefit of an indorsement speech by President Roosevelt, may well be on the way toward a potential presidential nomination boom of his own in 1940.

That at least is the judgment of some veterans of the Washington press gallery, who have watched the career and tactics of the Senator-son of a Missouri Democratic party stalwart, who came within sight of being President instead of Woodrow Wilson during the world war years.

Their speculation over what the near future may hold for Senator Clark, if he again sweeps his state in November, has more than mere guesswork behind it. It springs from the fact that his name has been mentioned frequently in congressional cloakroom gossip, since the break between the President and an element of his party came to the surface in the court bill fight last year.

The Missourian is a recognized authority on parliamentary procedure and House and Senate rules and precedents. His political experience in Washington began in his boyhood. He bitterly fought some Roosevelt measures including the court bill, but as stoutly championed others. He is hard to place exactly conservative balance.

His obvious political assets place him among those who would be available in 1940 if talk of an organized effort to recapture the party from New Deal domination comes to anything in fact.

Bennett Clark has a name long associated with traditional Democratic party methods of reconciling widely differing political philosophies and sectional interests behind a national ticket. He comes from a border state, linking the South and the Middle West. He will just have turned 50 when the 1940 campaign starts. A brilliant war record in France, has been topped since the war by Clark's devotion in the Senate to measures he declares necessary to keep the nation at peace. He headed the little group overseas that conceived and organized the American Legion, and has been a national commander of that organization.

There is no doubt in Washington press gallery circles that Bennett Clark is aiming toward the White House. His renomination and re-election to the Senate would be a long step on the road, at least to consideration as a "harmony" candidate by an anti-New Deal party bloc which seems in the making.

9,000 SEEK JOBS WITH COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Applicants for clerical positions under the Missouri Unemployment Compensation Commission, nearly 9,000 in number, took written examinations July 9.

The tests were held at St. Louis, Kansas City, Jefferson City, Springfield, Cape Girardeau and Kirksville. The successful candidates will also have to undergo a second examination before they become eligible for jobs.

The Unemployment Compensation Commission, it is reported will add 65 clerks during the quarter ending in September, and about 40 more in the quarter ending in December. A substantial increase in jobs probably will be necessary early in 1939 when payments to unemployed workers are begun.

Mrs. F. H. Smith of Jefferson City came Monday evening to visit her daughter Mrs. C. H. French, and son Frank Hardin Smith Jr. for several days.

Miss Ruth Hollingsworth entertained two tables of guests Monday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Brown of Odessa, Mo.

On His Record--Missouri and the

[This advertisement contributed by Scott County Friends of Bennett Clark.]

Manufacturers are improving cars every year. Highway commissions of all states are improving roads. But the human being does not want to be improved in his ability to drive and walk carefully.

People are still trying to compete with trains at railroad crossings. Many motorists still claim the right of way after an accident. Many still insist they can pass other cars on hills, curves, and dangerous crossings. Too many motorists feel that after they once start to cross an intersection the pedestrian has absolutely no right.

The improvement in cars and highways goes on, but the increased amount of horsepower in an automobile does not justify the decreased use of horse sense by people.

It's up to the individual, whenever he takes hold of that wheel, to drive safely and to drive courteously.

NEW MADRID COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

By Milus R. Davis

Schools have begun to open this month and we are visiting them as soon as they open and notify the office.

On July 5, LaForge opened with Estelle Smith Horton and Louise Rhodes Poyner as teachers, and Edna M. Smith in the colored school. The school board has bought giant strides for LaForge and Farnburg and plan to build see-saws out of heavy 2 by 12 lumber.

Higgerson School began July 4 with Edith Blair of New Madrid as teacher for the third term. The board has painted and repaired the building which was damaged by the 1937 flood, being floated a quarter of a mile from the site.

The following schools opened July 11th:

Bookerton: Wiley Myracle, Bernice Jackson, Stafford, Ruth Till, and Mrs. Edith DeLisle, teachers.

Walnut Grove: Pearl Pritchett Presson and Frankie Bard, Stubblefield: Dan S. Tyler, Broadwater: Edith Lee.

New Hope: Ellenora Summers Giddens, Virginia Topping.

The following schools are opening July 18:

O'Bannon: Henry J. French; and Elizabeth Allen in colored school. Wilburn: Zephia DeWitt. Hough: Burvie Gunn.

We have just completed the state aid requisitions to the state department and each school has asked for state aid, as follows:

This year, we expect the first payment of state aid to be made about August 31 and the amount will probably be about 40% of the above requisitions. The second payment will come next March 31 and will be around 60%, according to present estimates. This will make a total of around 100% of the minimum guarantee, but they are not likely to pay anything on the maximum guarantee.

Schools expecting abandonment aid for abandoning rural schools should make application at once, if not already done, according to a letter just received from the state department.

We have just completed a five-page outline to aid rural teachers in following the new State Course of Study. This Course of Study is rather complicated and we expect it to be revised and simplified next year.

The schedule for fall plan meetings has been received from the state department and the date set for our teachers' meeting is September 8th. We plan to get at least two speakers of prominence from outside sources to make the program strong.

We are glad to see some of our schools adding grade teachers this year. Every school should have as many grade teachers as attendance units. In fact, some of our schools have more grade teachers than units and it makes the work more effective and pleasant. A teacher with 40 or 50 pupils cannot give justice to all students. The law really should be changed to base a teaching unit on an average of 25 pupils, which would mean an enrollment of from 30 to 35 pupils and this is all a grade teacher should be asked to handle.

Walking Into Trouble

In its interesting analysis of the hows, whys and whens of automobile accidents in 1937, The Travelers Insurance Company has published some revealing figures relating to pedestrian deaths. With fatalities and injuries to pedestrians rising at an alarming rate, the figures are worth the attention of every individual.

Nearly 28 per cent of the deaths, the figures indicate, resulted from the obviously unsafe habit many walkers have of crossing in the middle of the block.

Of the 27.5 per cent or a total of 4,450 pedestrians killed while crossing at intersections, only 280 met death while crossing, as they should, with the signal. No less than 1,100 died when they attempted to cross against the signal light or the officer's signal. The remainder were killed while crossing diagonally in the intersection or while crossing at intersections where there was no signal.

Other leading causes of pedestrian deaths, in order of their importance were: walking on rural highways, children playing in the street, coming into the street from behind a parked car, men at work in the roadway, and hitching rides.

Ed and Ernest Lewis of Libbourn were Sunday afternoon guests of Miss Zelma Kem.

Margaret Chison of Salcedo is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heuser and family.

Hershel Link spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Eugene Hall.

Willie Porter attended the singing convention at Big Ridge church Sunday.

Million Adults Taught by WPA to Read and Write

The five-year goal set by the WPA educational division of teaching 1,000,000 illiterate adults in the United States to read and write has been reached and passed, as reports to mid-June show.

Administrator Harry L. Hopkins quoted Director Alderman as announcing that WPA education has reduced adult illiteracy by approximately one-fourth. In spite of economic reductions, both in teachers and number of classes, ing diagonally in the intersection or while crossing at intersections where there was no signal.

Other leading causes of pedestrian deaths, in order of their importance were: walking on rural highways, children playing in the street, coming into the street from behind a parked car, men at work in the roadway, and hitching rides.

enrollment under the educational program during the 1937-38 school year showed an increase for the fifth consecutive year. Total enrollment was 1,686,211, as compared with 1,569,529 a year ago.
